AI engineer, artist, and science communicator exploring data, AI, and surveillance technologies to push boundaries and provoke discussion on predictive policing, voice and identity, digital surveillance, and Afrofuturism.

SELECTED WORKS, EXHIBITIONS & COMMISSIONS

2026	Close Enough Performative installation on the intimacy of drone surveillance: autonomous drones, computer vision and an annotated live feed put the audience on both sides of the apparatus. GOGBOT FESTIVAL, ENSCHEDE, NL
2026	Deepfake Archive / Believe the Feed An online archive of synthetic media as a network graph, indexed by intent at creation rather than technique, with panels naming toolchain, consent and consequence. MOZILLA FESTIVAL, BARCELONA, ES
2025	DEEPFAKE: A Video Essay A video essay on synthetic media, from AI memorials to non-consensual pornography, shown with a live installation that replaces the viewer's face in real time. Supported by the Stimuleringsfonds. PECKHAM DIGITAL, LONDON, UK
2024-26	Fashion Police Drones Drones become arbiters of fashion, judging outfits against audience-set criteria: corporate fashion crimes, pet peeves and state-enforced dress codes. PECKHAM DIGITAL, UK • CICA MUSEUM, SEOUL, KR
2024	Screen-to-Soundscape An open-source prototype that reimagines the screen reader, turning a browser into a spatial-audio soundscape with rich alt-text for blind and visually impaired users. CONSTANT, BE • PROCESSING FOUNDATION, US • STIMULERINGSFONDS & SIDN, NL
2023	VOICES Participants record a secret, follow it through the machine-listening pipeline that clones their voice, then hear themselves narrate the secrets of others. ARS ELECTRONICA, LINZ, AT • IMPAKT FESTIVAL, UTRECHT, NL
2023	Babble-on A web installation that slices a visitor's recorded voice into a personal babble tape, used to disguise conversation from audio surveillance. ARTICULATING DATA, EDINBURGH, UK
2021	Future Wake Predictive policing inverted: machine learning predicts who, when and how the next victim of police violence dies, and deepfakes give them a face. MOZILLA CREATIVE MEDIA AWARD • FUTUREWAKE.COM
2014	Synthetic Biology: A New Code for Life Documentary on synthetic biology's first decade, where DNA is treated as programmable code and cells as genetic circuits. EDITOR • DOCUMENTARY • VIMEO.COM/22153761

EDUCATION

2020-2024	PhD in Medicine Applied AI • Leiden University, NL
2016-2018	MSc Cognitive Neuroscience Radboud Universiteit, NL
2012-2016	BSc Biomedical Sciences With Honours • Univ. of Edinburgh, UK

AWARDS, GRANTS & FELLOWSHIPS

2025	Public AI Creative Fellowship MetaGov • USA
2024	Digital Culture & Fresh Perspective Stimuleringsfonds • NL
2024	Processing Foundation Fellowship Processing Foundation • USA
2024	Screen-to-Soundscape SIDN fonds • NL
2023	VOICES Collective European Festivals Fund (EFFEA) • Europe
2021	Creative Media Award Mozilla Foundation • USA

RESIDENCIES & COLLABORATIONS

2022-2024	Shibboleth: A Hybrid Voice With Effi & Amir • Brussels, BE
2023	CODE Residency IMPAKT • Utrecht, NL
2023	Deepest Darkest Unknown With Kurina Sohn • NL
2022	Anaïs Berck Algoliterary publishing • Brussels, BE

TEACHING & WORKSHOPS

2022 - PRESENT

Deepfakes: technology, culture & ethics • Generative AI and creative coding • Computer-vision surveillance • AI and accessibility.

HKU, ArtEZ, UAL, Piet Zwart Institute, iii, IMPAKT, Peckham Digital.

SKILLS

Python, R, JavaScript • Computer vision, generative AI, voice cloning • Drones, spatial audio.

English, Mandarin (B1), Dutch (B1).
